2023 IBR & EIBA Young IB Scholars Workshop (2nd)

online, June 6-7, 2023

Who Is This Event For?

The 2023 IBR & EIBA Young IB Scholars Workshop (2nd) is organized by International Business Review (IBR).

The purpose of the workshop is to provide early career researchers in international business (IB) with developmental feedback on their current research papers in international business studies. The overall goal of the workshop is to improve the quality of IB research and to bring new scholars into the IB field. It is our hope that many of these papers will eventually be published in premier journals.

How Is This Event Structured?

The 2023 IBR & EIBA Young IB Scholars Workshop (2nd) will be held in zoom during June 6-7, 2023, 10:00–19:00 (CET). The workshop will be led by Professor Tony Fang, Senior Editor, IBR. Presentations and related discussions are divided into six sessions for two days. Panelists are experienced researchers in IB, management, and organization who will inspire early career researchers to improve their research for high quality publication in the near future.

How Can I Submit a Paper?

All those who are doing their PhD or have already completed their PhD within 5 years are welcome to submit their paper manuscripts to eiba@eiasm.be by May 20, 2023. Please note that each participant can make only one submission.

All authors should indicate their names, e-mails, affiliations and young IB scholar status on the cover page/letter of the manuscript together with your CV as well as CV of the coauthors, if any.

Papers must be less than 10,000 words in length inclusive of abstract, key words, references, tables and figures, and should follow the guide for authors by major IB journals.

What Should I Do if My Paper Is Accepted?

Twenty papers will be selected from among the submitted papers. The acceptance notice will be sent on May 23, 2023. The authors of the selected papers need to confirm their participation by May 24, 2023. Authors of accepted papers are required to make a 5-minute presentation of their papers in the workshop.

Registration, Cost, Zoom

The workshop is free of charge and open to the entire IB community. Registration is required and should be done via this link

The zoom link will be emailed to all the confirmed registered participants who may or may not present papers.
